

THE BRITISH NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

&

THE ROYAL NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

THE LIFE AND WORK OF
MATTHEW BOULTON

Saturday 11th July 2009

10.00 Assemble

Tea/coffee

10.25 Welcome by Dr Robin Eaglen, President of the British Numismatic Society

Morning Session

10.30

Shena Mason A new species of gentleman

(Author on Matthew Boulton and his family)

11.15

Fiona Tait Improving the coinage: the records of the Soho Mint, 1791-1850

(Archivist, Birmingham Archives and Heritage)

12.00

George Demidowicz The layout and development of the Soho Mint: documentary research and excavations

(Head of Building Conservation and Archaeology, Coventry City Council)

12.45 Buffet lunch until 2.00pm

Afternoon Session

2.00

Dr Dick Doty Russians, revolutionaries, and the Raj: Soho goes global

(Senior Curator, National Numismatic Collection, Smithsonian Institution, Washington)

2.45

Sue Tungate The Soho Mint: from copper to customer

(Currently preparing a PhD study on the coins, medals and tokens of Matthew Boulton's mints)

3.30 Tea/coffee

3.45

Professor Peter Jones Matthew Boulton: Man of the Enlightenment

(Professor of French History, University of Birmingham)

4.30 Closing remarks by Mr Joe Cribb, President of the Royal Numismatic Society

The meeting will be held in the centre of Birmingham at the Museum & Art Gallery. The cost of attending the meeting, including the buffet lunch, will be £20.00. To register please send a cheque, made payable to the British Numismatic Society, to Dr K Clancy, Director, The British Numismatic Society, c/o Royal Mint, Llantrisant, Pontyclun CF72 8YT, or pay online at www.britnumsoc.org. For further details contact Dr Clancy on 01443 623005, or at kevin.clancy@royalmint.gov.uk